

Homeland Security Symposium

October 4, 2002
Everett, Washington

Snohomish County
WASHINGTON

The National League of Cities

SNOHOMISH
COUNTY
WASHINGTON

Close to everything.
Far from ordinary.™

If you have responsibilities or concerns regarding homeland security, we invite you to attend this symposium.

- Working Towards a Coordinated National Preparedness Effort
John Pennington
Director, FEMA Region X
- State and Local Implications of the Homeland Security Strategies
Major General Tim Lowenberg
The Adjutant General - State of Washington
Glen Woodbury, Director
Washington State Emergency Management Division
- Luncheon Keynote Speaker - Formation of the Homeland Security Efforts and How It Is Changing Our Outlook On Life
Dr. Clifford Simonson, PhD
Author, "Terrorism Today - The Past, The Players, The Future"
- Preparation for Disaster
Dr. Tony Roon, MD, F.A.C.S.,
Director, Trauma Services, Providence Everett Medical Center
- Local Public Health's Role in Disease Surveillance and Response
Dr. Ward Hinds
Director, Snohomish County Public Health District
- Port of Seattle Airport and Seaport Security Initiatives—Impacts on Tourism
Jeff Fitch
Director of Airport Security, Seattle-Tacoma International Airport

Friday, October 4, 2002

8:30 am-4:30 pm Symposium - Registration begins at 8:00 am

Marine View Conference Center

404 14th Street, Everett Marina, Everett, Washington

$125 full day includes luncheon

Space is limited —To register call the Everett Area Chamber of Commerce at 425-438-1487 or fax this form to 425-438-8387

Name _____

Organization _____

Phone _____ Email _____

Visa or MC Card # _____

Exp. Date _____ Signature _____